

Agenda

13:00	departure from the conference center, Noordwijkerhout
14:00	arrival at the Museumplein, Amsterdam possibility to visit the Rijksmuseum
18:00	boat cruise on the Amsterdam canals (Dutch: grachten) departure from the dock opposite of the Rijksmuseum
19:30	arrival by boat at the St. Olofskapel, NH Barbizon Palace, dinner
22:15	departure from the St. Olofskapel, NH Barbizon Palace, by bus
23:00	arrival at the conference center, Noordwijkerhout

Itinerary

- 1 Rijksmuseum, Museumstraat 1 - the Rijksmuseum possesses the largest and most important collection of classical Dutch art, e.g. works from Vermeer, Hals, Rembrandt (The Nightwatch). Additionally, the collection consists of a large variety of decorative art, e.g. Delftware or 17th century dollhouses.
- 2 public dock, Canal Company, opposite to the Rijksmuseum on Stadhouderskade
- 3 St. Olofskapel, NH Barbizon Palace, Prins Hendrikkade 59-72

Other Points of Interest

- 4 Van Gogh Museum, Paulus Potterstraat 7 - the Van Gogh Museum houses the largest collection of Van Gogh's paintings and drawings in the world.
- 5 Flower Market - permanent market selling flowers, plants and tulip bulbs.
- 6 Rembrandtplein - square with many pubs and outdoor cafes.
- 7 Leidseplein - square with many pubs and outdoor cafes.
- 8 Begijnhof - the Begijnhof is one of the oldest inner courts in the city which was used by Beguines, a lay sisterhood. Entrance from the Gedempte Begijnensloot.
- 9 Anne Frank House - The Anne Frank House is a museum dedicated to Jewish wartime diarist Anne Frank, who hid from Nazi persecution in hidden rooms at the rear of the building.
- 10 Oude Kerk (old church) - Amsterdam's oldest building dating from the 14th century.

Excursion to Amsterdam

